Dear Friends at St. Paul's,

Have you noticed the words over the front door as you go out of church? It says, "You are now entering the mission field." As you leave the church through that front door, you step outside and you are where all the people who need the love of God live, work, and play.

Sometimes, you can see them. It may be a family who are new to the community moving into a house at the end of a street. It could be the man you see walking into Lima every day, his feet dragging as he makes his way back home to Elida every evening. It could be the kids walking in the alley with nothing to occupy their time except whatever mischief they can find in the moment.

More often, you don't see them. They're elderly who live behind closed curtains and locked doors out of fear. They are young single mothers who are too ashamed of their situation to ask neighbors for help. They are children who struggle to read and complete math problems. They are young adults wondering why they can't seem to find their way in life. They are God's children who are hurting, needing, crying, and feeling that nobody cares what happens to them.

As those who follow the way of Jesus, who have professed belief in the risen Lord, it's up to us to let others know that God loves them, wants the best for their lives, and through us, will give them the helping hand they need to become all that God meant them to be in this life. How do you hear God calling you to active faith? In what ways can St. Paul's Church be the heart, hands, head and feet of Christ in our community? Let me know what you think, or stop someone on our Administrative Council and share your ideas. God is calling us to active faith. Are we listening?

See you in church.

Keynote Speakers: Dan Glover and
Claudia Lavy
Sunday, April 20, 2008
3 PM at Trinity UMC, Delphos, Ohio

As you probably already know by now, our District superintendent Tom Tumblin will be leaving us to accept a position at Asbury Seminary in Wilmore Kentucky. Tom has faithfully served the United Methodist Church in a variety of capacities and his new full time position at Asbury will enable him to influence our denomination at its very root – the seminary. Halleluiah!!

I am writing this letter to invite you to the upcoming Spring Conference where you can be a part of thanking Tom for this faithful service as District Superintendent

- particularly through this time of transition. We are asking anyone who would like to share a note of thanks/appreciation to send it to the Northwest Plains District Office, 910 E. Third St., Ottawa, Ohio 45875 – Attention Sandy. We will present these to Tom at the District Conference after which there will be a reception. No disrespect to Tom but Rev. David Howell – pastor at Delphos Trinity and host for the District Conference – has insured a good turnout based on the fact that there is going to be CREAMERY ICE CREAM served during the fellowship time.

Spring Conference will be held on Sunday, April 20, beginning at 3 p.m. at Delphos Trinity United Methodist Church located at 211 E. Third St., Delphos, Ohio. See you there!!

At a vacation Bible school in Sacramento, California, the leaders were talking about the lives of various people in the early church. In telling the story of Stephen (Acts 7:54-60), one of the leaders did not want to shock or upset the young children by saying that Stephen was martyred, and so she simply said, "Sometimes, being a follower of Jesus is risky. One of the people in the Bible, Stephen, got hurt because of his faith." A young child interrupted and said, "He didn't get hurt. He got dead."

You really shouldn't say "I love you" unless you mean it. But if you mean it, you should say it a lot. People forget.

Trustees Notes:

During March, the Trustees were continuing to prepare the renovated basement for use. New cupboards arrived and are waiting to be installed along with new counter tops. Problems with the lighting were repaired and all of the electrical work in the basement is complete. Doors were trimmed to allow clearance for the new flooring. New carpeting was installed in the East entry, elevette and Sacristry.

Normal maintenance around the church included; a new stove has been acquired for the parsonage, new ceiling tile was placed in the Narthex, a new understanding was reached with the cleaning service.

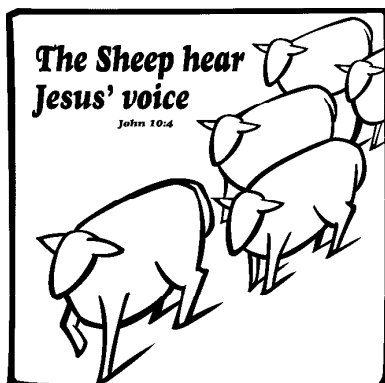

We continue to await the warm weather to see new roofing installed over the Narthex and bell tower to fix our leaking problems.

Respectfully submitted,
~ Jamie Wyant, Chair

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.” Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.”

Connecting With ...

Volunteers Needed

During the week of June 16-21, several United Methodist churches including St. Paul's UMC, will participate in a mission roofing project at the United Methodist Children's Home. Regardless of whether you participate as a worker or financial supporter, the UMCH mission will be a rewarding experience.

Volunteer projects at the Children's home have made a valuable contribution to the services and programs offered to the community by UMCH. The work, the enthusiasm, and love shared during the volunteer experience have also had a profound effect on the lives of the participants.

The goals of our mission week are threefold. First, the time spent working and sharing together will help our group to grow in Christian love and that each individual will use the time away from their normal environment and routine to reflect and pray about their own life and be spiritually enriched. Second, to help each individual understand what UMCH is and why it is important to this region and critical to the children served. Third, to make the daily work beneficial to UMCH while demonstrating a Christian witness to the surrounding community.

Representatives are available to visit and speak at your next organization meeting, worship service, or Sunday school class. To schedule a visit or discuss giving opportunities, contact: Debbie Lewis, Development Office Coordinator, at 614-885-5020 ext. 563

TO EMMAUS AND BEYOND

The story of Jesus meeting two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35) appears in the lectionary for April 6. The story occurs on the afternoon of Easter Sunday. Jesus joins two disciples en route to the village of Emmaus, but they do not recognize who he is.

When the supposed stranger asks what the two are discussing, their jaws drop. "You've got to be the only person in Jerusalem who hasn't heard the news! A great prophet names Jesus was crucified. Some of our friends claim to have seen him alive, which would be wonderful, but that doesn't seem very likely."

For the remainder of the journey, Jesus explains the scriptures to these two, assuring them that the Messiah is indeed risen, and present.

Arriving at their destination, the disciples urge their companion to stay for dinner and during the meal Jesus takes bread, blesses it, and breaks it. "Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight" (Luke 24:31, NRSV).

Many people take this story literally, seeing in it one of the many appearances of the risen Christ. Others look at it differently, seeing this story as a metaphor for Christ's presence in the church, then and now.

There are times when we feel helpless and hopeless, perhaps feeling abandoned by God, and unsure of our direction. At those times, in Christian community, we experience the presence of Christ with us, painstakingly helping us understand some truth that will move us beyond our present state.

In his book Jesus: A Revolutionary Biography, scholar John Dominic Crossan states: "Emmaus never happened; Emmaus always happens." Whatever our understanding, the story of Emmaus can remind us that we are not alone. Jesus Christ is with us. Always. To the end of the age.

MEMBERSHIP

I would like to thank all of the congregation for your help by signing the pew pads each Sunday. My job in membership is to keep records so that numbers are available for forms for annual conference, such as average attendance, percentage of male and female attendance, and various other statistics. I also coordinate with outreach and stewardship if needed: for example, e-mail outreach so notes of welcome can be sent to visitors, if they have provided an address.

The pew pads are also a communication tool; for prayer requests, letting me know when prayers are answered and a person can be removed from the prayer list, updating me that continued prayers for a person are desired, and also for notes of intentions to participate in activities such as special classes being offered.

So continue to sign the pew pads, to help see that visitors sign the pew pads, to pass the pew pads to people who might come in after the pew pads were passed and without your help might not have opportunity to sign them. The pew pads also assist anyone who might substitute for me if I am absent.

If something comes up that you would like to communicate between Sundays, I can be reached at 419-339-3978 or by email at rlsegovia@wcoil.com.

Anyone who would like to join the prayer time for persons on the prayer list and our church, for about 15 minutes before Sunday School at 9:00 AM on Sunday mornings is most welcome.

Belief in God means trusting that a good Power is at work in our world and surrendering ourselves to It. So, in practice, belief in God is belief in life. It is to take things as they come and, always finding and furthering the good, to make the best of every situation. Thus, every person of goodwill, whether a believer or not, is actually involved in the same commitment.

Something Great

He was 92 at that time and I wondered why the Church even bothered to ask the old gentleman to preach at that age. After a warm welcome, introduction of this speaker, and as the applause quieted down he rose from his high back chair and walked slowly, with great effort and a sliding gate to the podium. Without a note or written paper of any kind, he placed both hands on the pulpit to steady himself and then quietly and slowly he began to speak...

"When I was asked to come here today and talk to you, your pastor asked me to tell you what was the greatest lesson ever learned in my 50 odd years of preaching. I thought about it for a few days and boiled it down to just one thing that made the most difference in my life and sustained me through all my trials. The one thing that I could always rely on when tears and heart break and pain and fear and sorrow paralyzed me...the only thing that would comfort was this verse...

"Jesus loves me this I know.

For the Bible tells me so.

Little ones to him belong,
We are weak but he is strong...

Yes, Jesus loves me...

The Bible tells me so."

When he finished, the church was quiet. You actually could hear his foot steps as he shuffled back to this chair. I don't believe I will ever forget it.

A pastor once stated, "I always noticed that it was the adults who chose the children's hymn 'Jesus Loves Me' (for the children of course) during a hymn sing, and it was the adults who sang the loudest because I could see they knew it the best."

Here is a new version of the song just for us who have white hair, or no hair at all. For us over middle age (or even those almost there) and all you others, check out this newest version of "Jesus Loves Me". It is quite cute, so read, sing and enjoy:

JESUS LOVE ME

Jesus loves me, this I know,
Though my hair is white
as snow.

Though my sight is growing dim,
Still He bids me trust in Him.

YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME FOR
THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO.

Though my steps are
oh, so slow,
With my hand in His I'll go
On through life, let come what may,
He'll be there to lead the way.

YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME FOR
THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO.

Though I am no longer young,
I have much which He's begun.
Let me serve Christ
with a smile,
Go with others the extra mile.

YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME FOR
THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO.

When the nights are dark and long,
In my heart He puts a song.
Telling me in words so clear,
"Have no fear, for I am near."

YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME FOR
THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO.

When my work on earth is done,
And life's victories
have been won.

He will take me home above,
Then I'll understand His love

YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME...
YES, JESUS LOVES ME FOR
THE BIBLE TELLS ME SO.

I love Jesus, does He know?
Have I ever told Him so?
Jesus loves to hear me say,
That I love Him every day.

An elderly man's wife had recently died, and the man was sitting out in his yard crying. A four-year-old boy who lived next door went into his neighbor's yard, climbed into the man's lap, and sat there. Later, when the child came home, his mother asked what he had said to the man. "Nothing," the boy answered. "I just helped him cry."

Praises and Prayers

Greetings in Christ from The Church @ Allentown,

I am writing this letter as an open invitation to all men from all Methodist Congregations in Allen County to come join the Lima Area United Methodist Men's Ministry for Breakfast on Saturday April 5th at 8:00 am. We will be meeting in our basement here at Allentown (4900 Allentown Rd) for food, fellowship, prayer and discussion on upcoming service opportunities in the Greater Lima Area and beyond. We are seeking to unite men from congregations in and around Lima, to better serve the needy in this area by combining our skills, resources, and hearts.

Aaron Griffith
Delphos, OH

Jesus said: "Don't let this throw you. You trust God, don't you? Trust me. There is plenty of room for you in my Father's home. If that weren't so, would I have told you that I'm on my way to get a room ready for you? And if I'm on my way to get your room ready, I'll come back and get you so you can live where I live. And you already know the road I'm taking."

Living Our Faith

This paraphrase of Psalm 23 is written from the points of view of an older person, reflecting on a long, full life. The first line of verse 6 is adapted from "A New Creed" of the United Church of Canada.

<sup>2</sup>God has given me green meadows to laugh in, clear streams to think beside, untrodden paths to explore.

<sup>3</sup>When I thought the world rested on my shoulders, God put things into perspective. When I lashed out at an unfair world, God calmed me down.

When I drifted into harmful ways, God straightened me out.

God was with me all the way.

<sup>4</sup>I do not know what lies ahead, but I am not afraid.

I know you will be with me.

Even in death, I will not despair.

You will comfort and support me.

<sup>5</sup>Though my eye dims and my mind dulls, you will continue to care about me.

Your touch will soothe the tension in my temples; my fears will fade away.

I am content.

<sup>6</sup>In life, in death, in life beyond

death, God is with me.
All through life, I have found goodness in people.
When life ends, I expect to be gathered into the ultimate goodness of God.
