Dear Friends,

Isn't it wonderful to wake up to warmer days and sunshine? It reminds us of the new life that we've received in Christ as we see the earth coming to life after the dead of winter. For this congregation, that is even more meaningful because of the death of so many we knew and loved in the last several weeks. But, the earth is renewed, and we know that God has given us life once again.

Spring is a time to begin again. Did you fall short of your New Year's resolutions? Begin again. Did you stop reading your devotions every day? Begin again. Did you quit exercising? Begin again. Did you cheat on your weight loss plan? Begin again. Did you miss church? Begin again.

When people disappointed God, and the great flood was sent, God began again with Noah. When Israel turned from God and were taken into captivity, God began again with a remnant. When the faith that shaped God's people became inwardly focused, God began again with Jesus. When the church became too powerful and politically influenced, God began again with Martin Luther. When the Church of England became the law, God began again with John Wesley.

Just as we need to begin again when we fall short or disappoint ourselves, God needs to begin again when the people of God become misdirected from their purpose. As St. Paul's looks into our future, in what ways do we need to begin again? How are we to carry the faith forward in new ways? In what ways can we influence our community and the world to begin again with God through Christ?

Just some thoughts in a spring morning, a time of beginning again.

See you in church.

Pastor Ruth

Upcoming Events for St. Paul's

Our little ones need your smiling faces!!! We are currently looking for people who are willing to be in a pool of nursery volunteers. You could help on Sundays that are convenient for you on a regular rotation. You can sign up with a friend or have us assign a helper for you. The more people in our pool, the less often each person is scheduled. Please contact Slone Nagy at 419-204-2585 for additional details.

ST. PAULS CHURCH TO HOST U.M. MEN'S BREAKFAST

Men of St. Paul's Church, would you like to join other United Methodist men in food and fellowship? On Saturday, May 3rd, St. Paul's Church will host a breakfast for the Lima Area United Methodist men, in our fellowship hall. We will gather at 8 A.M. for a hearty breakfast and will have fellowship with men from other United Methodist churches in the Lima area. Then we will discuss how we, as men of faith, can team with other churches to serve our community and our God in local mission work.

Past breakfasts held at Trinity UMC and The Church at Allentown indicate that we will

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH

The Missions committee has been busy the last few months preparing for the upcoming United Methodist Children's Home project scheduled for June. We have 14 persons signed up to go, and will join several other churches from West Ohio for a week of roof repair, landscaping, and general maintenance. If you have questions about this project, see Jamie Wyant.

The Committee has been working to get organized, and we've identified several local missions that we will be supporting through the Coins for Communion. They are as follows:

- June: Five Loaves Food Pantry
- July-August: Our Daily Bread Soup Kitchen
- September: Samaritan House
- October: The Crop Walk
- November: Heartbeat
- December: Grampie's House

As we send our Coins for Communion to these agencies and ministries, we will also be asking that you give 'hands on' support, by supplying other tangible goods needed to care for the people they serve. Some of the thoughts of the committee are that we would have one day per month that St. Paul's would serve the meal at Our Daily Bread, and teams of 5-7 people would go each month to serve and meet the people. We would also look at collecting items for the babies and moms served by Heartbeat in November, and possibly collect children's books for Grampie's House in December.

The hope of the Missions Outreach Committee is that we as a church would provide some financial resources through Coins for Communion, and tangible assistance through other donations, but also begin to develop relationships with some of the people served through these ministries.

In September, we are planning a Missions Saturation Sunday on September 28, where you will see displays of missions we've been supporting, ideas for new missions to support, and will have the opportunity to direct where we spend our missions time and resources through a 'dot' process.

Jesus reached out to the poor and needy. In Matthew 25, he said, "In as much as you have do this to the least of these, you have done it to me."

Compassion clothes the soul with the robe of God and divinely adorns it.

Consulting the Manual

A little girl, dressed in her Sunday best, was running as fast as she could, trying not to be late for Bible class. As she ran she prayed, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! Dear Lord, please don't let me be late!" While she was running and praying, she tripped on a curb and fell, getting her clothes dirty and tearing her dress. She got up, brushed herself off, and started running again! As she ran she once again began to pray, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late...But please don't shove me either!"

WE WALK/RUN FOR A CURE:

A.C.S. RELAY FOR LIFE, 2008

Again this year, St. Paul's U.M.C., in an outreach mission with the Lima Allen County Regional Transit Authority ('RTA'), has formed a team and entered the Allen County Chapter of the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life. Team members are: St. Paul's – Linda Holman, Team Lead, Carole Grapner, Corinne Piper, Margie Best, Virginia Hollar, Ron Steiner, Linda Craft, Shirley Moser, and Marty White; RTA – Lynn Cary, Kay Prine, Dianna Drexler, and Shelley Gould.

These people are the core of the RTA/St. Paul's team – others will be asked to join with them for the annual Relay event June 13-14, 2008, at the Allen County Fairgrounds beginning Friday at 6:00 p.m. through Saturday 6:00 p.m. In exchange for pledge donations, walkers/runners maneuver the track in one hour or more increments before handing off or relaying to the next Team participant. The intent is to occupy the track (maintain the relay) for the full 24-hour event in an effort to attain the Team's financial goal of $2,500.

For many years now, St. Paul's has participated in this event with the RTA. Initial financial goals were modest - $1,000 range. Through spirit and enthusiasm, the Team has stretched its fundraising goal to $2,500 as an A.C.S. Silver-designated team. This is a remarkable effort of which St. Paul's should be proud; however, the true focus is supporting cancer education and research in the persistent battle to minimize and eliminate this dreaded disease that has had some effect upon all of us either yesterday or today.

You can be an 'honorary' Team member through your support of: the Team's Sunday, May 4, 2008, luncheon and bake sale. If you enjoyed the fellowship during the recent Koinonia Chicken Barbeque in our beautifully renovated fellowship hall, you'll enjoy equally this May 4 fund raising event; Walker/runners' pledge solicitations. We have raised $905 toward our goal thus far. Your pledge contribution will place us even closer.

Finally, THANK YOU! In the true spirit of Christian contribution, St. Paul's Elida has demonstrated a willingness to support its community through this event and many others on its Outreach/Missions calendar. Deeds speak louder than words.

ST. PAULS KICKS OFF 5 LOAVES FOOD PANTRY PARTNERSHIP

On Sunday, April 6th, St. Paul U.M. Church kicked off its partnership with Immanuel UMC and The Church at Allentown UMC to provide food to local families in need. Allentown started the Five Loaves Food Pantry in their basement a few months ago in partnership with the Lima Area Food Bank, to try to serve those needy families in the Elida-west Lima area. The need is so great that they need help with stocking the pantry. A partnership was announced at St. Paul's Church on April 6th. During that week, we collected 20 boxes of cereal, 18 boxes of tissues, 11 tubes of toothpaste, 6 boxes of rice, 2 toothbrushes and 3 bars of soap. Thank you to everyone that donated these items! We will make the second Sunday of each month "Food Pantry Sunday". Food will be disbursed at Allentown on the third and fourth Saturdays from 9-12 A.M. Anyone who is in need of food is welcome to come to the pantry. Needed in May, will be canned fruit and vegetables, shampoo and boxed dinners such as pasta, noodles, macaroni, spaghetti and spaghetti sauce. Jesus commands us to "feed my sheep" both spiritually and physically. Thank you to all who answer His call.

have a good turnout on May 3rd.

All of the men of St. Paul's Church are invited to attend. David Chivington, the Assistant Superintendent of the Northwest Plains District will be our guest for the breakfast.

Donations from the breakfast will go in a fund to be used for local mission work. If you would like more information on the breakfast or if you can provide food for the breakfast, please contact Tim Piper, Jamie Wyant or Norm and Mary Grigsby.

Ascension Day

Exercising Dominion

Sometimes words can get us into trouble, especially when we understand them in ways that are different from their original intention. Consider the word dominion in Genesis 1:28. God tells the first humans (and through them, us) to have dominion over every living thing. The word dominion comes from the Latin dominus meaning "Lord" and is also the root for "dominate." It usually implies exerting power and, in short, lording it over others.

Maybe it's time to re-examine the word. What might it mean to exercise dominion in a godly way? The Bible shows us that God tends to exercise "lordship" through compassion and gentleness, promoting harmony and balance. Jesus demonstrates lordship by being a servant.

God's instruction to have dominion is less about dominating and more about coexisting in harmony; caring for the world as much as God does. Created in the image of God, we are called to exercise dominion the way God would do it – with gentleness, compassion, and concern for the creation of which we are an integral part.

Did you ever wonder...

What is another word for thesaurus?

Why there is an "s" in the word lisp?

What the best thing was before sliced bread?

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Council on Ministries

OHIO BISHOPS OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

To: The United Methodist People of Ohio
 From: Bishop Bruce R. Ough, West Ohio Conference
 Bishop John L. Hopkins, East Ohio Conference
 Date: April 7, 2008
 RE: A Pastoral Letter on the Expansion of Gambling in Ohio

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Grace and peace to you from God, our gracious creator and provider, and the Lord Jesus Christ, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.

As the episcopal leaders of the United Methodist people in Ohio, we write to you with a grave concern for the repeated, relentless and reckless efforts to expand gambling in Ohio. With blatant disregard for the citizens of Ohio who have repeatedly and resoundingly said "No" to the expansion of gambling, the gambling industry is once again mounting a well-funded campaign to introduce casino gambling to our state.

An organization called "My Ohio Now" intends to introduce a ballot initiative this fall that would change the state's Constitution to create a $600,000,000 single site casino and resort destination in Clinton County, centrally located between Columbus, Cincinnati and Dayton. The "My Ohio Now" website claims this destination casino gambling site will be the most amazing entertainment complex in the Midwest, calling it "a beautiful mansion that reflects our Midwestern sensibilities."

United Methodists in Ohio, like United Methodists around the world, embrace a core set of values handed down to us from John Wesley, the founder of our great evangelical and spiritual movement. These core values are:

- > Do no harm
- > Do good
- > Stay in Love with God

This way of living is the foundation of our "sensibilities." We know that these core values are incompatible with a casino gambling "mansion" designed to exploit God's people.

We do not want the citizens of Ohio to be deceived by the glamour of this proposal, the appeal of "My Ohio Now's" television advertisements or the promise that a destination casino gambling site will be an economic engine for Ohio.

32 Wesley Blvd., Worthington, Ohio 43085-3585
 (614) 844-6200 • Fax (614) 781-2642 • 1-800-437-0028

Perhaps, more disturbing is the fact that the "My Ohio Now" initiative, if approved, would use the state's Constitution to create a casino gambling monopoly for the two business persons developing the proposal. No one else would be able to compete with them. Our state's Constitution gives no other business a monopoly. Apart from the devastating impact of casino gambling, granting two developers a monopoly guaranteed by our Constitution is an assault on our Midwestern and American sensibilities.

This ballot initiative will also change Ohio's gambling status to a Class III Gambling State. This will open the door to Tribal gambling. The Eastern Shawnee already have agreements with several communities within Ohio to develop casinos should the door be opened. Tribal gambling operations cannot be regulated by the state. Recent decisions to expand Ohio's current lottery to include the highly addictive game of Keno have already signaled to the gambling interests that the door is opening to casino gambling. It is time, once again, for the citizens of Ohio to say, "No!" The United Methodist people of Ohio can and will lead the way.

We write to remind you of what you already know and have faithfully expressed at the ballot box. The United Methodist Church stands firmly against gambling. This is an historical and unwavering conviction, deeply rooted in our Wesleyan tradition of personal and social holiness. The United Methodist Church believes that "gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interests of moral, social, economic and spiritual life, and destructive to good government." [Social Principles of The United Methodist Church, paragraph 163.G of The Book Of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2004)]

Gambling is addictive. Gambling thrives on tricking people into believing that they can get something for nothing. This is not a Midwestern sensibility. Gambling is far more than recreation; it is far more than a moral issue; it is far more than an escape from responsible daily living. Gambling is bad economics and irresponsible government.

We remind you that churches and other 501-c-3 organizations are allowed by law to take positions on issues and to advocate for their defeat or passage. It is the Church's right and holy responsibility to impact the social, spiritual and moral fabric of our society and to seek the welfare of all God's people. Opposing the expansion of gambling in Ohio is justice work. Justice work changes systems that are unjust and prevents destructive systems from being established.

We urge you to become fully informed and engaged in this issue. A joint East and West Ohio Conference Anti-Gambling Task Force has been organized to lead our efforts to stop the expansion of gambling. They have our strong endorsement and support. You will be receiving more information from them over the next several months about this ballot issue and our related efforts to stop the introduction of Keno. We need persons to volunteer as county coordinators. You can contact Dee Stickley-Miner (dstickley@wocumc.org) in West Ohio Conference or Paul White (paul.white@ecumc.com) in East Ohio for more information or to volunteer.

Begin even now to educate yourself, your church members and neighbors. Begin even now to pray for God's guidance, strength, courage and wisdom. Begin even now to offer your time and talent as an advocate or a county coordinator. Begin even now to practice the Methodist Way of living regarding this and many similarly complex issues facing our state and nation by doing no harm, by doing good and by staying in love with God.

This past month of March we celebrated taking in youth members, a baptism, providing food and comfort for funeral dinners, a birthday party, readers for Easter, the sign above the entrance/exit to the sanctuary, lilies at Easter, youth activities and volunteer work on and in the fellowship hall to make it beautiful.

~ Tim Piper

Three boys are in the school yard bragging about their fathers. The first boy says, "My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a poem, they give him $50."

The second boy says, "That's nothing. My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a song, they give him $100."

The third boy says, "I got you both beat. My Dad scribbles a few words on a piece of paper, he calls it a sermon, and it takes eight people to collect all the money!"

Honoring Mothers

On May 11, millions of people in many countries will remember and honor their mothers, perhaps by sending cards, flowers, and chocolates, or by making visits and taking them out to dinner. Others may cook a meal, give a gift, or do other things to make the day special, while others will visit a grave or other place to remember mothers and grandmothers who have died.

In more recent years, some churches and groups have expanded the observance of the second Sunday of May to "Festival of the Christian Home" or "Christian Family Sunday."

The modern celebration of Mother's Day on the second Sunday of May goes back to the late 1800s and, while it was a day to honor mothers, its beginnings lie not in the greeting card industry, but in politics. We owe the celebration of Mother's Day to the diligent work of three women: Anna Jarvis Sr., Anna Jarvis Jr., and Julia Ward Howe.

In addition to honoring your mother with your regular traditions, consider celebrating mothers and families in other ways as you learn about and reflect upon the legacies of the women who gave us this special day.

Anna Jarvis Sr.

This young homemaker from the Appalachian region of the United States tried in 1858 to get women's work as mothers and homemakers recognized as "genuine labor" equal to that of men. She tried to organize an annual Mother's Work Day that would give mothers a day off in recognition of the fact that they actually worked even if they did not get paid for all they did. She also lobbied for better sanitation conditions and clean water, and after the Civil War worked for reconciliation of north and south. You could honor her by:

- sharing tasks around the home, appreciating the work that each person does
- making a donation in your mother's name to an organization that brings clean drinking water to those without it
- participating in a neighborhood cleanup activity

Julia Ward Howe

She is perhaps best known for writing the hymn "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" (although she did not give it that title, and she preferred to call it "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory"). Ms. Howe worked tirelessly in the cause of peace. She was devastated by the effects of the U.S. Civil War: the huge death toll, the horrendous injuries of so many young men, and the terrible economic effects on both sides.

She was convinced that the two most important causes in the world were peace and equal rights for all people. She called for all women to rise up and work against war in all its forms, and tried to establish a "Mother's Day for Peace." In 1870 she issued a Mother's Day Declaration, part of which reads:

Arise then . . . women of this day!

Arise, all women who have hearts!

Whether your baptism be of water or of tears!

Say firmly: "We will not have questions answered by irrelevant agencies. Our husbands will not come to us, reeking with carnage, for caresses and applause. Our sons shall not be taken from us to unlearn all that we have been able to teach them of charity, mercy and patience. We, the women of one country, will be too tender of those of another country to allow our sons to be trained to injure theirs."

You could honor her by:

- praying for peace
- writing letters to government leaders urging them to work for peace

Anna Jarvis Jr.

Deeply moved by the work of Julia Ward Howe, the daughter of Anna Jarvis Sr. wanted to make Mother's Day a national holiday and encourage all mothers to work for peace and recognition of homemakers' work and dignity. She also wanted to honor all mothers who had died. She began each year to distribute white carnations (her mother's favorite flower) to all of the women in her mother's church on the second Sunday in May. She lobbied the government to make this day a holiday and Congress did so in 1914; other countries followed suit.

However, much to her dismay the day moved away from its emphasis on justice and peace and became more commercial. Anna Jarvis regretted her efforts, and actually asked Congress to revoke their action. You could honor her by:

- making a homemade card or gift for your mother that commends her efforts to be a peacemaker
- honoring mothers in your church and community who have died
- supporting a program such as a women's shelter or agency that helps single mothers

Pentecost—The “Other” Story

Every year on Pentecost Sunday (May 11, 2008) the lectionary offers the Acts 2:1-21 as the key reading for the day. This familiar story tells of the believers gathered together in Jerusalem and experiencing an unusual wind and something like tongues of fire appeared on each head. They believed these things to be signs of God's Spirit.

Everyone began to speak at once, and they realized that they could understand one another. Bystanders assumed that the disciples were drunk, but Peter pointed out that they were only under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

The lectionary also provides another reading for Pentecost Sunday which often gets, understandably, overshadowed by the Acts text. This year, it is Numbers 11:24-30. The people of Israel have been journeying in the wilderness for some time, and they are getting tired and cranky. “Why did we ever leave Egypt?” they wail, pining for what they seem to recall as the “good old days.” (Apparently they have had a momentary memory lapse, because their days in Egypt had been spent in slavery!)

Moses is at the point of burnout and begs God for help. God in turn responds, taking some of the spirit that rests upon Moses and parcels it out to 70 elders who are then commissioned to help provide community leadership. But a curious thing happens.

Two other men, Eldad and Medad, also receive God's Spirit. They begin to prophesy, even though they are not in the “official group.” Someone immediately tried to stop them and ran to Moses with great concern. Moses, however, was not worried.

“I wish that all the Lord's people were prophets,” Moses said, “and that the Lord would put his Spirit on them” (Numbers 11:29b, TNIV).

Something similar happens at Pentecost – God's Spirit comes to all people: men and women, boys and girls, slaves and free, young and old. May we recognize and celebrate the Spirit of God moving and working in our midst today.

At Sunday School they were teaching how God created everything, including human beings. Little Johnny seemed especially intent when they told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs.

Later in the week his mother noticed him lying down as though he were ill, and she said, "Johnny, what is the matter?" Little Johnny responded, "I have pain in my side. I think I'm going to have a wife."

If you try to eat with one chopstick you will starve.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GRADUATES!

OUR HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

St. Paul's UMC High School "Graduate Recognition Sunday" will be May 18, 2008

Elida High School will hold commencement ceremonies Saturday, May 31, 2008

DOUG GUESS, son of Cindy Guess and the late Doug Guess, 207 West North Street, Elida, OH 45807, is graduating from Elida High School. Doug is planning to attend the University of Northwestern Ohio in the fall to study Computer Networking Technology.

JOHN SEGOVIA, son of Bruce and Tammy Segovia, 1450 Ivy Drive, Elida, OH 45807, is graduating from Elida High School. John will be attending The Ohio State University this fall to pursue a degree in Psychology.

From the smallest sugar spoon to the largest cooking pot, the dishes in our church kitchen have been washed, dried, and put away.

Everything had been placed in the old basement following the flood and during the Fellowship Hall remodeling. It shortened the large cleaning task to have so many willing helpers. Many thanks to Margie and Dan Best, Shara and Dennis Bowsher, Ruth Hardy, Linda and Art Holman, Joanna Hurd, Myrna Metzger, Corinne Piper, Tracy, Steve, and Tahler Sdao, Sue Theodore, Janna Thompson, Martha Vazquez, and Jan and Jamie Wyant.

OUR HIGHER EDUCATION GRADUATES

MALLORY RENTZ will graduate from Ohio Northern University on May 18, 2008, with a degree in School Psychology. She will be continuing her education at a graduate school in the fall to become a school psychologist and is waiting to hear from all her applications before deciding on a school. Mallory is the daughter of Marty and Maureen Rentz, 2245 Baty Road, Elida, OH 45807.

ZACK WHITE will receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training from the College of Health and Human Services of the University of Toledo on May 3, 2008. Zack will be moving to Florida to look for employment as that is also where he plans to live after marriage to Katie Foltz, on October 10, 2008. Zack is the son of Marty and Kathy White, 5756 Clover Ridge Drive, Elida, OH 45807.

There is a good reason they call these ceremonies 'commencement exercises'. Graduation is not the end, it's the beginning."

Thanks!

The People of St. Paul's

To Our Friends at St. Paul's, We wish to thank all of you for the flowers, cards, and support by your presence. A special thanks to Pastor Ruth for her personal support and the moving service. One more special thanks to the ladies who served us a fine meal. We love you all, and again, thanks to all of you!

The Family of Betty Holmes

How often do we hear someone say "I can't draw" or "I cannot dance" (perhaps you've said it yourself)? And yet we can, every one of us, for we are created in the image of God, the Creator. And whether we have the gifts of da Vinci or not, the tools of an art school or not, even whether we have hands or not, we can draw – on a canvas or in our minds. And we can dance, with our feet, our hands, our torsos, our hearts.

– Donald Schmidt, In the Beginning

To My Church Family, Your comforting remembrance and kindly thoughts are deeply appreciated. Thanks for the cards, prayers, donations, planter and nice dinner.

The Bowsher Family

Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries, it can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, life is stronger than death.

We extend sympathies to the following at St. Paul's:

To Jim and Carolyn Michael. Carolyn's father, Paul Loyer, passed away on March 27, 2008. His funeral service was held on March 31, 2008.

To the family of Betty Holmes. Betty passed away on March 30, 2008. Pastor Ruth officiated at her funeral on April 2, 2008.

John and Betty became members of St. Paul's in 1942.

To the family of Don Bowsher. Don passed away on April 4, 2008. Pastor Ruth officiated at his funeral on April 7, 2008.

Living Our Faith

I go to nature to be soothed and healed, and to have my senses put in order.

– John Burroughs

Book of Timothy

A journalist heard about a very old Jewish man who had been going to the Western Wall to pray, twice a day, every day, for a long time, so she went to check it out. She went to the Western Wall – also known as the Wailing Wall – and there he was, walking slowly up to the holy site.

She watched him pray for about 45 minutes. When he turned to leave she approached him for an interview.

“Pardon me, sir, but I noticed you praying quite fervently. How long have you been coming here and praying?”

“For about 60 years,” the man replied.

“Sixty years! That’s amazing! What do you pray for?”

“I pray for peace between the Christians, Jews, and Muslims. I pray for all the wars and hatred to stop. I pray for all our children to grow up safely as responsible adults, and to love their brothers and sister.”

“How do you feel after doing this for 60 years?”

“Like I’m talking to a wall.”
